Image Analysis Worksheet #1

With a partner, closely examine Paul Revere’s engraving of the Boston Massacre. Answer the questions below.

1. List three things you notice in the image.
   A. _________________________________________________________
   B. _________________________________________________________
   C. _________________________________________________________

2. How does this image make you feel? Use examples from the image to explain your answer.
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________

3. How do you think this image would make a patriot feel who is living in the colonies during this time? Use examples from the image to explain your answer.
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________

4. How do you think this image would make a loyalist feel who is living in the colonies during this time? Use examples from the image to explain your answer.
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
Image Analysis Worksheet #2

With a partner, closely examine John Bufford’s chromolithograph of the Boston Massacre. Answer the questions below.

4. List three things you notice in the image.
   A. ______________________________________________________
      ______________________________________________________
   B. ______________________________________________________
   C. ______________________________________________________

5. How does this image make you feel? Use examples from the image to explain your answer.
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

6. How do you think this image would make a patriot feel who is living in the colonies during this time? Use examples from the image to explain your answer.
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

4. How do you think this image would make a loyalist feel who is living in the colonies during this time? Use examples from the image to explain your answer.
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

Now compare the two images and answer the question below.

5. List three examples of how the images are alike and three examples of how they are different.
   Alike__________________________________________Different____________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
Image Comparison Assessment

Using the information you learned analyzing Revere and Bufford’s representations of the Boston Massacre, answer the following question. Make sure to use specific examples to support your answer.

What image do you feel more accurately portrays the events of the Boston Massacre?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________